

Symbiant Ltd
Ethical Policy
15/05/2024

1. Purpose

- 1.1 Symbiant Ltd ("Symbiant") is committed to the practice of responsible corporate behaviour.
- 1.2 Through its business practices Symbiant seeks to protect and promote the human rights and basic freedoms of all its employees and agents.
- 1.3 Further Symbiant is committed to protecting the rights of all of those whose work contributes to the success of Symbiant, including those employees and agents of suppliers to Symbiant.
- 1.4 Symbiant is also committed to eliminating bribery and corruption. It is essential that all employees and persons associated with Symbiant adhere to this policy and abstain from giving or receiving bribes of any form.
- 1.5 This policy is non-exhaustive, and all aspects of Symbiant's business should be considered in the spirit of this policy.

2. Human Rights

- 2.1 Symbiant is vehemently opposed to the use of slavery in all forms; cruel, inhuman or degrading punishments; and any attempt to control or reduce freedom of thought, conscience and religion.
- 2.2 Symbiant will ensure that all of its employees, agents and contractors are entitled to their human rights as set out in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the Human Rights Act 1998.
- 2.3 Symbiant will not enter into any business arrangement with any person, company or organisation which fails to uphold the human rights of its workers or who breach the human rights of those affected by the organisation's activities.

3. Workers' Rights

- 3.1 Symbiant is committed to complying with all relevant employment legislation and regulations. Symbiant regards such regulations and legislation as the minimum rather than the recommended standard.
- 3.2 No worker should be discriminated against on the basis of age, gender, race, sexual orientation, religion or beliefs, gender reassignment, marital status or pregnancy. All workers should be treated equally. Workers with the same experience and qualifications should receive equal pay for equal work.
- 3.3 No worker should be prevented from joining or forming a staff association or trade union, nor should any worker suffer any detriment as a result of joining, or failing to join, any such organisation.
- 3.4 Workers should be aware of the terms and conditions of their employment or engagement from the outset. In particular workers must be made aware of the wage that they receive, when and how it is to be paid, the hours that they must work and any legal limit which exists for their protection and any overtime provisions. Workers should also be allowed such annual leave, sick leave, maternity / paternity leave and such other leave as is granted by legislation as a minimum.

- 3.5 Symbiant does not accept any corporal punishment, harassment in any form, or bullying in any form.

4. Environmental Issues

- 4.1 Symbiant is committed to keeping the environmental impact of its activities to a minimum and has established an Environmental Policy in order help achieve this aim. Copies of the Environmental Policy are available from <https://www.symbiant.co.uk/policies.php>.
- 4.2 As an absolute minimum, Symbiant will ensure that it meets all applicable environmental laws in whichever jurisdiction it may be operating.

5. Conflicts of Interest

- 5.1 Symbiant holds as fundamental to its success the trust and confidence of those with whom it deals, including clients, suppliers and employees. Conflicts of interest potentially undermine the relationship of Symbiant with its partners.
- 5.2 In order to help preserve and strengthen these relationships Symbiant has developed a Corporate Hospitality and Gifts Policy, which provide rules and guidelines concerning the conduct of its officers and employees aimed at minimising the possibility of conflicts of interest and at avoiding risks associated with bribery and corruption. Copies of the Corporate Hospitality and Gifts Policy are available from <https://www.symbiant.co.uk/policies.php>.
- 5.3 All officers, employees and representatives of Symbiant are expected to act honestly and within the law.

6. Information and Confidentiality

- 6.1 Information received by employees, contractors or agents of Symbiant will not be used for any personal gain, nor will it be used for any purpose beyond that for which it was given.
- 6.2 Symbiant will at all times ensure that it complies with all applicable requirements of data protection legislation (including, but not limited to, the Data Protection Act 1998) in force from time to time.

7. Shareholders and Investors

Symbiant, its officers, employees and representatives are committed to ensuring that no act or omission which is within their power and which would have the effect of deliberately, negligently or recklessly misleading the shareholders, creditors or other investors in Symbiant occurs.

8. Suppliers and Partners

- 8.1 Symbiant expects all suppliers and partners to work towards and uphold similar ethical and moral standards.

- 8.2 Symbiant will investigate the ethical record of potential new suppliers before entering into any agreement. Further, Symbiant reserves the right to request information from suppliers regarding the production and sources of goods supplied.
- 8.3 Symbiant reserves the right to withdraw from any agreement or other arrangement with any supplier or partner who is found to have acted in contravention of the spirit or principles of this Ethical Policy.

9. Bribery and Corruption

- 9.1 Symbiant is fundamentally opposed to any acts of bribery and to the making of facilitation payments as defined by the Bribery Act 2010.
- 9.2 Employees and any other persons associated with Symbiant such as agents, subsidiaries and business partners are not permitted to either offer or receive any type of bribe and/or facilitation payment.
- 9.3 All employees are encouraged to report any suspicion of corruption or bribery within Symbiant in accordance with the Whistleblowing Policy available from <https://www.symbiant.co.uk/policies.php>.
- 9.4 Should any employee or associated person be in doubt when receiving or issuing gifts and hospitality, he/she must refer to the Gift and Hospitality Policy available from <https://www.symbiant.co.uk/policies.php>.
- 9.5 Symbiant uses its reasonable endeavours to implement the guidance principles on bribery management that are published, from time to time, by Secretary of State in accordance with Section 9 of the Bribery Act 2010.
- 9.6 If an employee or associated person is found guilty of giving or receiving a bribe, he/she will be personally criminally liable and may be subject to disciplinary action.
- 9.7 Anyone found guilty of bribery, will be responsible for bearing any related remedial costs such as losses, court fees or expenses.
